

Clinical Advisory Board

The Company has established a clinical advisory board, consisting of individuals with medical product development expertise. The members of the clinical advisory board advise the Company concerning product development, product packaging and hospital issues. The Company is actively recruiting additional members of its clinical advisory board and expect that it may in future consist of at least twelve leading orthopaedic surgeons and neurosurgeons.

Name	Affiliation
Melvin Rosenwasser, M.D.	Robert E. Carroll Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery, Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons; Director of the Hand and Trauma Service at New York-Presbyterian Hospital Columbia Campus; Attending Orthopaedic Surgeon at the New York Presbyterian Hospital; Director of International Orthopaedic Trauma Association; Named in "America's Top Doctors," (Castle Connolly Publishing, 2001).
Federico Vinas M.D.	Staff Neurosurgeon of Neurosurgery Services at Halifax Medical Centre, a level II Trauma Centre; Received his Doctor of Medicine degree from the National University of Cordoba; attended the University of Illinois School of Medicine and then the Wayne State University residency programme, where he specialized in Neurosurgery.
Douglass P. Beall M.D.	Musculoskeletal radiologist based in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Chief of Radiology Services at the Centre for Clinical Radiology of Oklahoma; Associate Professor in the department of Orthopaedic Surgery and Rehabilitation at the Oklahoma University College of Medicine; Residency in clinical radiology at The Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore; fellowship in musculoskeletal radiology at The Mayo Clinic, Rochester, US.